Notes

1. Male officers wear No 5A Dress on full ceremonial occasions. When less formality is appropriate, No 5B Dress is worn. No 5 Dress is worn by women officers also by warrant officers and SNCOs as optional mess dress on all occasions when male officers wear No 5A or 5B Dress.
2. Normally the broad riband of the senior order is worn.
3. The maximum number of British stars which may be worn is three but the number may be increased to four if attending a function organized by or for a representative of a foreign state and a star of that state is in possession of the wearer.
4. Badges of the Orders of the Garter, Thistle, Merit, Crown of India and Companions of Honour also Baronet's badge and Royal Victorian Chain are not to be worn in miniature.
5. A foreign neck badge may be worn on an appropriate occasion. Women wear the badge on a bow on the left breast.
6. This order is for women only.
7. Women wear the chain pinned immediately and centrally above the miniature badges of orders, decorations and medals mounted on the brooch.
8. This order is for women only.
9. In the unlikely event of more senior appointments being held by personnel wearing No 4 Dress, the insignia is worn in the same manner as with No 1 Dress.
10. When No 6 Dress is worn by airwomen as mess dress, neither badges of orders, decorations and medals nor ribbons are to be worn with it.
